Friends Vs Family. Friends and family both play a major role in the life of an individual. Most of the discussions of one's life are molded according to the influence of friends and family. In the modern world, the family bonding is gradually dissolving; people give more importance to their friends rather than their families.

Comparative Essay: Friends vs. Family

Friends, on the other hand, are people one meets on their own terms mostly from our neighbourhoods schools or jobs and as one goes through life, they are bound to make and lose many of these. This gives credence to the adage that while on can choose their friends, the family is predetermined for them.
